Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has an exciting opportunity within the Southeast Region.

Do you enjoy the challenge of wildland firefighting? Do you see yourself leading a 20 Person Initial Attack Handcrew while working in Washington's most diverse geographic region? The Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) is looking for a bright, quick-thinking, motivated individual to fill the role of Handcrew Foreman (Wildland Fire Management Supervisor).

Duties

Responsibilities:

Community Resilience and Fuels Management

- Prescribed Fire Support – Leads and supervises crew to conduct site fuels and fire effects data collection, unit preparation, assist with burn plan writing, community outreach, and Rx burn implementation support to include firing, holding, burn boss, etc.
- Community Resilience - Lead and supervise crew to conduct home ignition zone assessments as part of Wildfire Ready Neighbors or independent requests from landowners and/or communities. In addition to Home Ignition Zone assessments, crew members may participate in community education days, plan and participate in community outreach and prevention events, and participate with local cooperators on community outreach projects.
- Forest Health Treatment – Leads and supervises crew to conduct non-commercial thinning and slash abatement, project layout, and compliance in coordination with State Lands and Landowner Assistance staff. Supports forest health project layout, tree marking, road brushing, and GPS data collection surveys. Assists with timber sales, layout, marking, forest cruising, and road maintenance.

Suppression

- Protects human life, natural resources, and property on Department-protected lands from wildland and urban interface fires to minimize resource loss and fire costs while ensuring firefighter and public safety. Firefighter safety is the top priority.
- Provide direct fire line supervision of the handcrew, which responds to grass, brush, and forest fires and is available for district, region, and statewide and/or interagency dispatch. Provides interagency fire suppression activities for initial attack, extended attack, mop-up, patrol, and rehabilitation. On initial attack fires, may perform ICS functions as Incident Commander Type 4 and 5, task force leader, air-to-ground contact, single resource boss, firefighter, timekeeper, or public relations contact. Assists in ensuring safe and efficient use of the Chelan handcrew as an efficient and effective firefighting resource. This often requires working long, irregular hours on weekdays, weekends, holidays, day or night. These duties involve fieldwork requiring physical performance, calling for above-average endurance and superior conditioning.

- These duties may include an occasional demand for extraordinary strenuous activities in emergencies under adverse environmental conditions and over extended periods of time. Works cooperatively with other fire protection authorities when working on joint jurisdiction fires.
- In addition to serving as a handcrew member, may serve with other suppression resources/modules commensurate with qualifications.
- Reviews and authors initial incident reports, Supervisor's report of injury, fire reports, and fire situation narratives.

Preparedness

- Under the guidance of the Crew Superintendent, plans and implements training for seasonal crews, Squad Bosses, and interagency cooperators. Instructs seasonal and permanent staff and private contractors as appropriate. Assists with developing the Unit's annual preparedness review. Plans and provides drills and training exercises regularly to the seasonal staff and Squad Bosses. Ensures safe working practices are followed and holds regular safety meetings and After-Action Reviews with the seasonal staff. Tracks crew training and ensures position task books are completed accurately.
- Under the guidance of the Chelan Crew Superintendent, develops and implements annual pre-suppression project work plans for firefighters. Assists with developing the Unit's annual preparedness review. Attends and participates in Unit and Region Staff meetings. Assists with the implementation of the unit's operational plan and ensures staff, equipment, and facilities are available and ready to meet the Region's operational plan.
- Under the guidance of the Crew Superintendent, plans and provides drills and training exercises on a regular basis to the firefighters. Coordinates work plan activities with other program managers and specialists. (e.g., fuel reduction, pre-commercial thinning, brushing roads, etc.).
- Ensures vehicles and equipment are serviced regularly. Inspect, evaluate, and recommend the potential need for replacement of fire equipment, supplies, and vehicles to the Crew Superintendent.

Supervision and Crew Administration

- Assist in providing supervision and leadership for a 20-person hand crew, ensuring adequate safety, production, and quality control of work projects and suppression efforts. Directly supervises 4 Squad Bosses and 14 Firefighters. This position routinely supervises and leads up to 18 people fighting fire and performing other activities.
- Assist and/or lead in the recruiting, orientation of applicants, screening applicants, and verbal interviews. Make recommendations to the Crew Superintendent for the hiring of squad leaders and firefighters. Ensures onboarding and various trainings are completed according to agency policy and timelines, such as: orientation, mandatory safety, position-specific, first aid, fiscal/accounting, and human resource-related trainings. Facilitate reviews of Job Safety Analysis and Task Hazard Analysis.
- Monitor workplace conduct at the Assigned Duty Station and provide expectations for off-duty behavior, facilities use, and housekeeping. Addresses crew personnel issues to ensure they are resolved at the appropriate level and/or recommends disciplinary action to the Crew Superintendent. Lead and conduct performance evaluations, provide goals and guidance as necessary, recognize successes, delegate tasks that can be assigned to subordinates, and facilitate and support all subordinate employees in their duties. Empower all employees to make appropriate decisions by providing a trusting, respectful, and positive workplace culture.
- Ensure a maintained facility for assigned portions of the Work Center, including areas needing special consideration. Monitors and provides direction for inventorying, ordering, and storage of all assigned equipment for the Chelan Hand Crew.
- Assists in planning, coordinating, and supervising a 20-person hand crew while ensuring adequate safety, production, and quality control of work projects, training, and suppression efforts. Assists in the preparation, review, and submission of crew documents. Working with the Crew Superintendent, this position anticipates, communicates, and fulfills the appropriate needs of the crew. Provides Squad Leaders and Firefighters with project work plans, point-of-contact information, expectations, deadlines, feedback, and compliance of the same.
- Ensure accurate completion of crew and agency documents and submit these as required by determined deadlines. Completes hiring and end-of-season forms as required by agency Human Resources and Accounting programs.

Fire Training

- Prepares for and participates in interagency training classes and hands-on courses of wildland firefighting tactics, fire behavior recognition, safe chainsaw operation, use of tools, pumps, and water delivery systems, working around helicopters, and assessments of hazards. Assists crew with guidance on various position task books, training records, and evaluations. Attends Fire Trainings to meet the Chelan Fire Unit's goals and personal fire training plan. As assigned, assists with required annual firefighter training and needs, and maintains certifications as required by the job position, to assist in recurrent training of the crew.
- Assists with the administration of Work Capacity Tests (pack tests). Assists in conducting Fire Unit training and participates as an instructor or lead at the Statewide Fire Training Academies or other trainings. Prepares lesson plans and timelines for a variety of professional trainings for participants from DNR, Interagency Cooperators, and the general public.
- May lead or assist in presenting annual Operator Safety Training sessions for private fire contractors.
- Plans drills and training exercises for the Assigned Hand Crew and seasonal fire staff.
- Analyzes and documents training needs required to meet Incident Command System and appropriate NWCG position qualifications, certifications, and readiness levels. Ensures completion of all required agency and NWCG documentation. Ensures annual IQS information is sent to Region Training Coordinators.

Perform Other Duties as Assigned

- May function as Crew Superintendent in the Crew Superintendent's absence.
- May act as Fire Unit Duty Officer for the Fire Unit. As Fire Unit Duty Officer, ensure staffing plan is adequate based on fire danger and recommend changes to the Chelan Fire Management Officer or the Region's Fire Operations District Manager. Assists with fire prevention and fire regulation program, as assigned.
- May participate in prescribed fire operations for the DNR or other agencies.
- Assists other programs, such as Recreation with public use issues, campground maintenance, and recreation projects, as assigned.
- May assist in performing tasks involving timber presale preparation as assigned by the timber sale unit, including general sale layout, road location, surveying, marking and cruising timber, prescribed fire, and fuels reduction.

Perform Physical Fitness Training

- Following DNR's Physical Fitness Training Policy (P020-007), the position requires passing annual work capacity tests at the arduous or moderate levels as NWCG requires.

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165\(1\) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, or for loss of pregnancy, are entitled to five (5) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave
