

Paid Tribal Internship Makah National Hatchery

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Duties: Fish rearing & spawning, fieldwork, and facility maintenance

Workstation: Makah National Fish Hatchery, Neah Bay, WA

Duration: 6 months, likely starting in March of 2026

Benefits Include:

- $700 per week living stipend and AmeriCorps status and benefits
  - $3,697 education award, student loan forbearance, etc.
- Career building experience and professional development training
- Free on-site housing available.

Apply Here!

Minimum Qualifications:

- Registered Tribal Member
- Age 18-34
- High School Diploma or GED
- A strong interest in Natural Resource Conservation Science

For more information and to apply, contact:

Kristin Bates: Kristin\_Bates@fws.gov

